Shaughn, a midwife and teacher, has been a Lactation Consultant since 1989 working both privately and in a public hospital setting. She lectures at Murdoch University in a pre-examination Breastfeeding and Lactation postgraduate course. Her previous experience as a lay breastfeeding counselor gave her a special interest in babywearing and gentle parenting.

Rebecca has worked with breastfeeding mothers and babies since her midwifery training in 1970, and as a Lactation Consultant (IBCLC) in private practice since 1989. A specialist in the area of positioning and attachment, Rebecca has produced breastfeeding education materials, including the video 'Follow Me Mum', which are widely used in hospitals and clinics throughout Australia and overseas.

Time: 9:30am to 12:30pm

Cost: $60 (light morning tea provided).

Venue: Details on booking (Midland/Kalamunda/Hills)
